

CAREERS- PRINT SOURCES

English 10

BOOK SOURCES

Make your life easier! Navigate books using:

- table of contents
- index
- subheadings

Note: Even old books are useful!

CITE BOOK SOURCES USING MLA

Last Name, First Name. Title of Book. Publisher, Publication Date.

Book with One Author – example

Meyer, Heidi. The Haunted Library. Scholastic, 2017.

Book with Two Authors – example

Meyer, Heidi, and Eluides Pagán. Adventures at Edison. Harper Collins, 2019.

Book with an Editor – example

Kozel, Mia, ed. Baseball and Bulldogs. Dover, 2018.

Book with Two Editors – example

Sierkowski, Jill, and Heidi Meyer, eds. Our Favorite Birds. Penguin Random House, 2016.

Title Page →

The Haunted Library

title

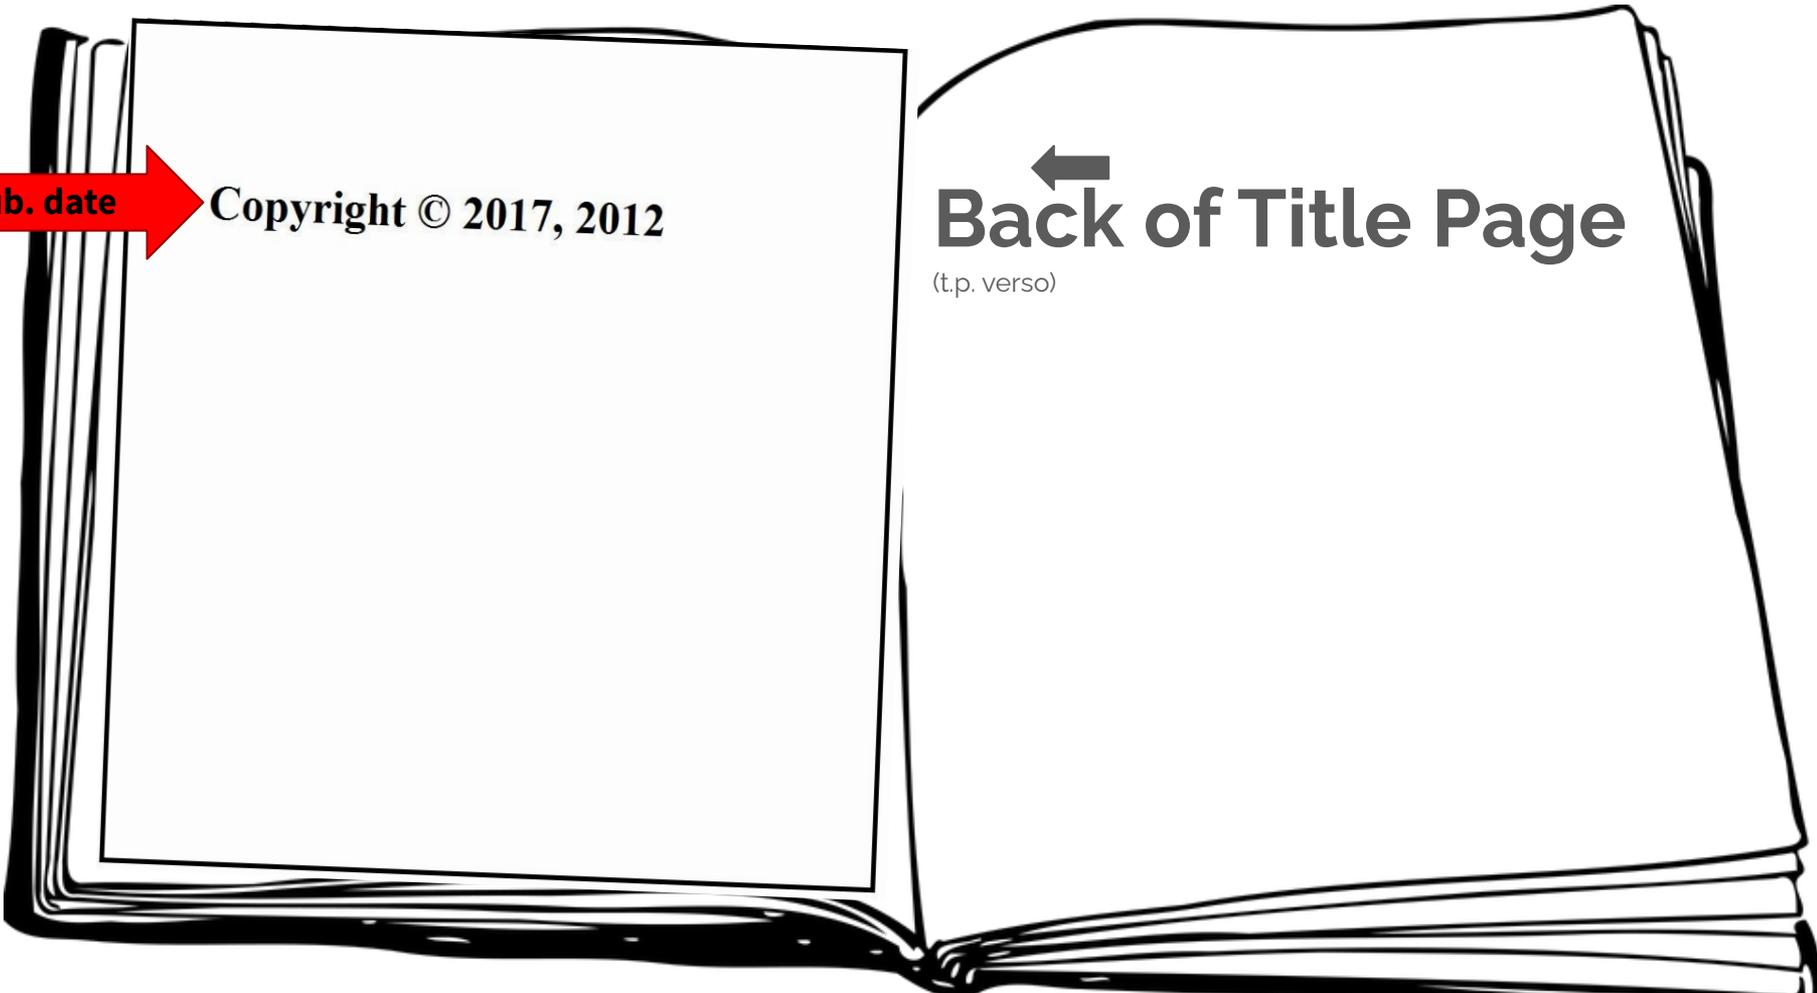

by Heidi Meyer

author

 SCHOLASTIC

publisher

Chicago • New Orleans • Seattle

pub. date

Copyright © 2017, 2012

**←
Back of Title Page

(t.p. verso)

PAMPHLET FILE

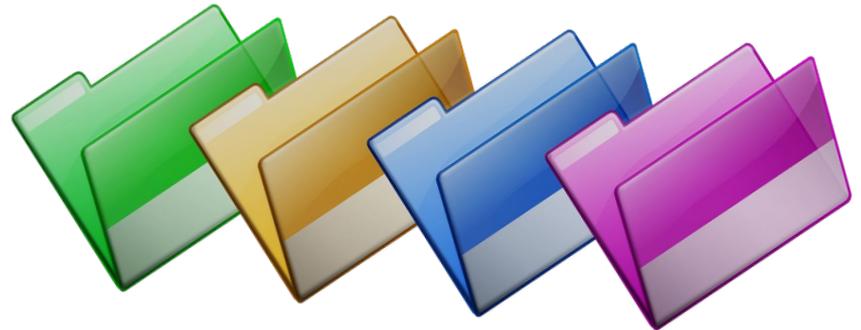

Look at index and ask librarian if you would like to see a pamphlet.

Please do not refile! Leave pamphlet on your table when you're done with it.

Cite using MLA

Title of Pamphlet. Publisher, Publication Date.

Career as a Librarian. Chicago Institute for Career Research, 2005.

OTHER THINGS...

- ★ Share books - in many cases, several people may need information from the same book.
- ★ If your career is quite specific, you might need to be more general with your research.
- ★ Keep track of all source information.
- ★ Leave the number cards in the books and make sure they're visible when returned.
- ★ Please return all books by the end of the class period. Librarian needs to count them.
- ★ Be nice to library materials! <3
- ★ Use your time wisely.....

@edisonlibrary

Follow Edison Library on Instagram! :]

OPPORTUNITIES DON'T HAPPEN;

YOU CREATE THEM. - CHRIS GROSSER

