

Print

Book Sources

Use table of contents, index, and subheadings to help you navigate.

Cite using MLA

Last Name, First Name. Title of Book. Publisher, Publication Date.

Book with One Author - example

Meyer, Heidi. The Haunted Library. Scholastic, 2017.

Book with More Than One Author - example

Meyer, Heidi, and Eluides Pagán. Adventures at Edison. Penguin Random House, 2016.

Pamphlet File

Look at index and ask librarian if you would like to see a pamphlet.

Please do not refile! Leave pamphlet on your table when you're done with it.

Cite using MLA

Title of Pamphlet. Publisher, Publication Date.

Career as a Librarian. Chicago Institute for Career Research, 2005.

Electronic

Career Cruising Database

High-quality information and easy to cite!

1. From Edison Library website, click purple “LCPL Access Digital Resources” link
2. Click blue “See All Databases” link, and then select “A-Z” tab on left
3. Click “Career Cruising” database link, and login with eLibrary Card #
4. Enter career title in search field and/or click “Careers” tab to browse
5. Once a career profile is selected, explore all tabs in the menu on the left
6. Click “Help” - tiny link at bottom of page - scroll to bottom of Help page for citation information

Cite using MLA Citation directions from Mr. Pagán

“Librarian.” Career Cruising. 2018. WEB. 17 March 2018.

O*Net Online

Onetonline.org

Occupational Information Network - Information from the Department of Labor

“Occupation Quick Search” field in the top right

Or explore the “Find Occupations” tab and subsequent fields

“Cite this Page” - tiny link at bottom of page

Cite using MLA Citation directions from Mr. Pagán

“Librarian.” *O*NET OnLine*. 13 March 2018. WEB. 17 March 2018.